PATRONESS

Right Hon. the DOWAGER LADY CLONBROCK.

Treasurer—Mrs. THICKE, 11, Suffolk Square.

Secretary—Mrs. THOMAS, Sandford Lodge.

(Together with a Committee of Ladies.)

CONSULTING SURGEON

WILLIAM WOOD, Esq., Surgeon to the Cheltenham Dispensary and Casualty Hospital.

SURGEONS-ACCOUCHEUR,

AUGUSTUS EVES, Esq. J.H.F. SPENCER, Esq. M.D.

Surgeon to the Cheltenham Dispensary and Casualty Hospital.	Late Resident Assistant to the New Lying-in-Hospital, Dublin.
---	---

At the Annual Meeting of this Society held on Saturday the 25th of March, at the Royal Old Well Pump Room, the following Resolutions were passed.

I. That the Report of the proceedings of the last Year, together with the Treasurers account be printed.

II. That the thanks of this Society be given to the Treasurer, and Secretary, for their valuable services during the past, and that they be requested to continue the same during the present Year.

III That the thanks of this society, be presented to the Medical Officers, for their indefatigable and constant attention to the Medical Department of this Institution.

IV. That the sum of £2. 2 0. be presented to the Funds of the General Hospital and Dispensary, for the supply of Medicine for the ensuing Year.

REPORT.

The Committee have much pleasure in laying before the Subscribers the first Report of their Institution, which has been productive of more good to the poor of the town of Cheltenham during the past year, than their most sanguine expectations, led them to anticipate. By the Medical Reports which have been forwarded to the Committee quarterly, it appears that thirty-six poor women have been attended, and that eight remain on the books for attendance.

Those Subscribers who have visited their patients, well know the great thankfulness these poor creatures have expressed, for the benefits they have derived from this Institution. The greater number have received that monthly supply of linen without which it is probable in some cases at least, that their offspring would have perished; and eighteen shillings have been expended for those who had scarcely the means of subsistence, but the funds of our Society were so low at its commencement that the Rule which now exists, that of three shillings for nourishment, in extreme cases of distress could not be adhered to. It will be seen by the Treasurer's account, that the Linen, &c. necessary to complete these Boxes (which the Poor have monthly in succession) have amounted to the sum of £19 0s. 8½d., and that, seventeen shillings have been paid to the National School for making these articles. This latter sum may be thought small, it is so, as the Ladies who were present at last year's General Meeting, agreed to do the work themselves, in order that the Society should have no more to pay, than was absolutely required.

There is one sum in the Treasurer's account which the Committee were sorry to expend, namely, £5 5s. for advertising in the Cheltenham papers. This occurred in consequence of the Treasurer of a New Lying-in-Dispensary, stating in his address, that in Cheltenham there was no Institution directly applicable to the support of women at the time of childbirth, and the Committee were then obliged to remind the public that their Institution still existed, and had filled up that vacancy which the New Dispensary was calculated to do, supposing the Cheltenham Midwifery Institution did not exist. The Committee say they were sorry to expend in advertising, but that advertisement it will be seen by the Treasurer's account, brought in an amount of £12 4s. 6d., which must be very gratifying to all the subscribers to this excellent charity. The Committee cannot conclude their Report without thanking the subscribers for the subscriptions and donations received, and hope they will use their utmost influence among their friends, in soliciting support for an Institution, whose sole object is the relief of the pauper when overtaken by the pain and danger of childbirth. To all, that period is one of great solicitude, but immeasurably so to those, who in poverty, nakedness, and privation of every sort, are condemned to await their hour of peril exposed to all the sufferings and dangers attendant on their situation, without medical assistance or proper nourishment, and frequently without even the consoling voice of a friend to alleviate their distress. The clergy and medical practitioner whom duty and humanity lead to visit these scenes of misery; and those charitable individuals, who desert the gayer scenes of life to devote themselves to benevolent pursuits, can alone appreciate the sufferings, and be aware of the fatalities daily incident to poor females in such situations.

ALCUIN'S LIFE,

Translated from the German,

By J. M. SLEE.

ALCUIN is supposed to have presented Charlemagne with the MS. Bible which the Trustees of the British Museum bought last summer at a very high price. He was born at York.

As the intimate friend and counsellor of Charlemagne, he took a most active part in all the important events of his times.

THOMAS HURST, 65, St. Paul's Church-yard.

Assembly Rooms, Cheltenham.

Public Auction Rooms,

For the reception of every description of Property intended for Sale.

MR. EDWARD MA'CLEAN

Respectfully informs the Nobility, Gentry, and Public, that he has taken on Lease the Auction Rooms in the Assembly Rooms, Cheltenham, for the purpose of disposing of by Auction on Commission, paintings, books, plate, china, glass, household furniture, musical instruments, wines, &c.

Mr. M. begs to observe his terms for selling on inquiry will be found extremely moderate, making no extra charges for advertisements, printing, &c.

Persons wishing to dispose of any kind of property, will find these Rooms from their commanding situation and commodiousness a most eligible establishment to consign their goods for public or private sale.

☞ Mr. E. M. pledges himself to the strictest accuracy and promptness in the settlement of Sale Accounts, also money advanced on houses, furniture, and goods intended for sale.

N.B. All kinds of articles sold by Private Contract as well as Public Auction.

WHITLAW'S Patent Medicated Vapour Baths,

UNDER THE SUPERINTENDENCE OF DR. ROBINSON,

Are Removed to

No. 1, Wellington Street, Cambray, Cheltenham.

The late Premises in Clarence Parade not being sufficiently capacious.

THAT prejudice of no ordinary character did exist relative to these Baths was apparent to the most superficial observer. But since their astonishing effects in eradicating diseases of the most obstinate and hitherto unyielding description, the Medical Profession (much to their honour) have not only laid aside the weapons of hostility but, convinced by repeated observation and experience of their powerful remedial agency, recommend them to their Patients and also adopt them personally.

THE PATENT MEDICATED VAPOUR BATHS

present a most powerful auxiliary to the Cheltenham Waters, by removing obstructions in various parts of the body, especially of the LIVER, whether produced by long residence in a Tropical Climate—habits of intemperance—intense application to study—or by a sedentary mode of life.

In conjunction with MR. WHITLAW'S IMPROVED SYSTEM of MEDICINE, the Baths in all cases of Acute and Chronic Inflammation and Irritability, Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout, Paralysis, Tic Doloieux, Nervous Debility, Headaches, and all cutaneous Diseases are eminently successful.—Asthma and the effects consequent on Influenza are speedily removed.

An erroneous opinion has been entertained in reference to the above Baths, which, instead of the patient being enveloped in dense vapour, almost to suffocation, as in those commonly used, the peculiar principle on which they are constructed, so attenuates it as to be rendered invisible, and in addition to their sanative influence, prove from the fragrance of the MEDICATIONS and their purifying nature, a luxury, imparting Tone instead of weakening the system, and removing that superabundance of adipose accumulation which renders respiration oppressive and exercise tedious and laborious.

MR. A. DURLACHER,

A Resident of Cheltenham for the last Twenty Years & upwards,

SURGEON DENTIST AND CORN EXTRACTOR,

83, Winchcomb Street,

Respectfully informs the Nobility, Gentry, and his Friends, that he is just returned from the Metropolis, and continues practising, as usual, in all branches of the Dental Profession.

THE TOOTH ACHE CURED MOMENTARILY AND EFFECTUALLY,

Without Drawing, or injuring the other Teeth.

He also eradicates CORNS and BUNIONS at one Visit, without cutting or giving the least pain, if ever so long standing. Nails deformed, or growing into the Flesh, immediately relieved.

Attendance at home and abroad, from Ten till Six.

☞ Reference can be given to the most eminent of the Faculty in the Town.

THIODON'S Mechanical and Picturesque

THEATRE OF ARTS,

At the newly erected Building, BATH-STREET, Cheltenham, opposite the Theatre,

Will open every Evening.

J. F. THIODON, remembering with gratitude the distinguished notice that his Theatre excited on his first visit to Cheltenham in 1815, respectfully returns thanks for past favours, and begs to acquaint the Public in general, that he has considerably IMPROVED HIS EXHIBITION since that period, both in PAINTING and MECHANISM.—Mr. T. hopes the Public will not confound this Exhibition with similar ones which have been exhibited in Cheltenham since that time.

To those whom Mr. THIODON has not had the honour of reckoning among his spectators, it may be necessary to add that his Theatre is composed of beautiful Representations of celebrated Cities, Landscapes, Sea and River Views, &c. enlivened by Figures of Persons, Shipping, Carriages, Horses, and other Animals, with varying aspects of Light and Shade. All the actions and movements representing Nature, as much as the art of Mechanism will permit, which cannot fail to deserve universal approbation.

Although Scene Painting is universally regarded as an inferior branch of the Pictorial Art, Mr. T. may be permitted to observe, that this part of his Exhibition displays a degree of excellence, which he flatters himself has never been equalled by any Performance of the kind, and has universally commanded the warmest applause.

THE RISING SUN, & THE STORM AT SEA,

Will form a part of the Exhibition.—Full particulars in hand bills. Open at Seven, and commence at Eight.

Front Seats, 2s.—Back Seats, 1s.—Gallery, 6d.

380, High Street, Cheltenham.

T. FURBER,

Respectfully informs the Nobility and Gentry that his excellent
